ESCOM, A NEW BEGINNING

1.- Introduction

Joel enters the computation lab, where is his first class, he has a first view of each one of his classmates, when he is trying to use the linux terminal it freezes, so he starts to panic, because of this the girl next to him named Ellie, starts laughing in a good way, she becomes his first and in the future his best friend.

2.- The paper ball fight

Joel is trying to pay attention to the calc subject but he is really bad in maths, then someone starts to throw wet paper balls and a war starts, after being hit a lot of times he takes a motorcycle helmet of someone near to him, and puts it to protect himself, the teacher turns back because he finished writing in the board and sees all the chaos.

3.- Valentine's day

Joel confesses his love to a girl but gets rejected, Ellie tries to calm him down trying to tell him that that day is also about friendship and gives him a gift, after that they receive the news that there will be a love confession on the volleyball court and they go to see her, the girl does not see herself convinced but in the end accepts the confession.

4.- The final exam

The final exam was the following day, Joel and Ellie were a lot nervous because they didn't remember it, so Joel uses his phone to resolve the integrals when he is under the pressure of being seen by the teacher in a suspicious way. Joel approves the course with 7, a classmate is really annoyed because he studied and he got a 6, at the end Joel and Ellie saw that they failed Algoritmia.
